Fragments of My Heart

Charlotte is an overweight woman living a boring life in a small town in New Hampshire when she is told she only has a year to live. In addition, the Financial Times reports German diplomats distributed a paper proposing restructuring regional funds such as the European Regional Development Fund ERDF to support member states that host migrants and refugees in order to pay for new housing, language courses and skills training.

Augmented Urban Spaces (Design and the Built Environment)

We reject the sad concept - even present in some other religious traditions - that time is a tyrant entrapping us into an endless cycle which must be broken.

Welcome to Wompkee Wood (The Wompkees! Book 1)

Hero was not trust heroine as a reporter, and neither do heroine.

The Life of the Spider

Hi I'm looking for a book, I remember that there were two brothers that lived alone in a cold country up north of Europe, I don't know if Iceland, Sweden or Finland or Greenland, and they had a kind of robot servant or babysitter that it takes care of the children, they go online school and they do exercise in their home, suddenly I don't recall why they travel to time history I believed by a device, I don't recall really. Andrew White of the Society of Jesus established a mission in what is now the state of Maryland and the purpose of the mission, stated through an interpreter to the chief of an Indian tribe there, was "to extend civilization and instruction to his ignorant race, and show them the way to heaven".

Tales of Hearsay (Unexpurgated Start Classics)

The introduction of low temperature plasma technology to medical research and to the healthcare arena in general is set to revolutionise the way we cure diseases. No, no, no.

Thirteen Months in the Rebel Army. ... By an impressed New Yorker

A well-told version of the story, with bold red, gold, and black woodcuts. Sam travels to spend the weekend with Ian in New York as he oversees a mural being put up.
